HALIBURTON SCHOOL OF THE ARTS FACULTY ART AUCTION BURSARIES Student Application Form 2011-2012

Who provides these bursary funds?

Funding for the bursaries is acquired through an annual art auction that is held each summer. Haliburton School of The Arts current and former faculty members donate art for the auction. It is the intent of the faculty donors that the funds raised through the auction be used to provide bursaries for individuals participating in arts programming/curricula at the Haliburton Campus of Fleming College.

Who is eligible for these Bursaries?

Bursaries will be awarded to student applicants who:

- Are participating in arts programming/curricula at the Haliburton Campus of Fleming College.
- An artistic statement is needed to provide evidence of need that the learning will provide growth personally, artistically and/or for the community. Explain how this course relates to their direction.
- Demonstrate a need for financial assistance in order to complete their studies.
- Each applicant is required to provide two letters of reference as well as a completed application form and covering letter. References should be from such as clergy, employer (past or present), or community leader art instructor or gallery. References may be faculty, former teachers, community associates, former employers, etc., but MAY NOT be family members or personal friends.
- Students are only eligible to receive three Haliburton School of The Arts bursaries in five years (one day workshop or weekend courses are excluded)

What is the value of each Bursary?

$450.00 for 1-week courses

$800.00 for students attending Art Certificate courses

How are the Bursaries awarded?

If you are successful, the bursary will be paid to you by cheque or applied directly to your course fees.

Additional Instructions:

- Read all instructions throughout application carefully
