WAYNE PETER RICKERBY STUDENT BURSARIES

Student Application Form 2011/12

Who provides these bursary funds?

These bursaries are provided by the Rickerby family and friends to honour the memory of Wayne Peter Rickerby. Wayne lived permanently in Haliburton since 1995, and seasonally there since 1985. Wayne had a strong work ethic. He demonstrated initiative, dedication and commitment to good service as an employee of The Delta Pinestone Resort in Haliburton. Wayne was a supporter of higher education and always wanted to give back to the local community.

Who is eligible for these Bursaries?

Bursaries will be awarded to student applicants who:

- Is a student in an art course focusing on watercolour painting.
- Demonstrates financial need in order to complete his/her studies

Preference will be given to an individual who lives year round in Haliburton.

What is the value of each Bursary?

There are three bursaries worth $322 available.

When are the Bursaries awarded?

If you are successful, funding will be applied directly any outstanding fees owing to the college and remaining funds will be forwarded to you by cheque.
