Welcome and Essential Services Session:

This session will include a welcome from President Tony Tilly, in addition to learning about key services to support the transition to Fleming College.

Various Program Sessions:

Program Coordinators/faculty will be in this session to greet you and introduce you to school protocols and leadership. This session will also introduce you to your student advisor; a designated staff member who will assist you through your first semester at Fleming. You will have the opportunity to meet other students in your program before classes begin. Volunteers will be on hand in the main foyer to help direct and/or escort you to your scheduled sessions.

Explore the Fleming Computer Network Drop in Sessions (listed on previous page):

Table 1 will be reserved in the Learning Resource Centre to help students log into the Fleming Network, enter the student portal where you will find volumes of information on campus services, and access your Fleming email account. Help can be provided to change your password, understand your printing account, access your weekly class schedule, add courses, change your address, etc. You will also have the opportunity to check out the Student Life's website, facebook page, twitter link and portal. There will also be a display of Student Health 101... our online Health magazine which provides students with access to information on health, study tips, financial budgeting, etc.

Social Drop in Sessions (listed on previous page):

While Academic Orientation Day provides an opportunity to meet students in your class and school, be sure also to drop in on any of the specific social sessions planned throughout the day. Whether you are an Aboriginal, International and/or mature student, this is a great opportunity to meet new students and college leaders. Free food and refreshments will be provided as well as the opportunity to get a heads up on everything you need to know about student events during the year!

Study Smart Session:

Take a proactive approach to your studies. Learn about the services and various workshops offered in Learning Support Services.

Free/Social Time and "To Do" Checklist:

Be sure to take advantage of the free time you will have. You can take care of the following during the hours listed below alongside each checklist item.

Important items to take care of:

- Parking Pass – Facilities, Information Booth (please note: parking gate arms will be raised for free parking in Lots D & M only from January 2 to January 13. Regular enforcement starts on January 16.).
- Meal Plan – Cafeteria (across from Room 181). There will also be a table setup in the main foyer.
- Student Photo ID – Rooms 3620 and 3621 from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm (please bring photo identification with you, for example: your license)
- Lockers and Books – First week hours at our Bookstore are Monday – Thursday, 8:30 am to 7:00 pm and Friday 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. Hours will change after January 9th.

Get involved in some of the following during your free time:

- Tours – Available from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. There will be a table in the Main Foyer during these scheduled times.
- Cake – Celebrate Sir Sandford Fleming's birthday with cake in the main foyer at 2:30 pm.
- Magic Show – Don't miss Fleming alumnus, Jason Chessar, in the Main Foyer between the hours of 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. Watch some great talent as he showcases his award winning displays of magic.
- Steele Centre Pub Social – Socialize in the new pub with your Fleming Student Reps. Student Reps will be hosting a social in the pub after 2:00 pm. Find out what your Student Administrative Council (SAC) can do for you!
- Free Lunch – Refer to your Academic Orientation Day Schedule (page one of this document). Pickup your ticket for a free slice of pizza and one pop during your designated lunch time as you enter the lower cafeteria.

Any Questions?

Students can visit the "Ask Me" Desk in the main foyer between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm on Monday January 9th. Volunteers will be on hand to answer inquiries and direct you to orientation sessions.
