

Photo Arts

Program Location:	Haliburton
Program Code:	PHA
Co-ordinator:	Jennifer Bain
Credential:	Ontario College Certificate
Start Date:	September 04, 2012
Tuition Fees:	$3,944.15 program duration. Tuition and fees subject to change.

The Photo Arts program will help you develop basic to intermediate skills in the photo arts, focusing on primarily black and white darkroom arts photography.

Program Highlights

Using an understanding of the great photography masters, technical developments, and theories from photographic history, you will assess the impact of social and political issues as they shape the creative process and thematic developments. Historical photo processes, mixed media images, creative presentation, and the effects of light will be explored. Quality studio and darkroom time during the Photo Arts program will assist you in the development of creating a solid foundation portfolio.

Students will need a digital camera and an SLR camera for this program.

This 15-week program is delivered in an intensive format, and is the equivalent to two semesters of full-time studies.

Success Stories

"The Photo Arts program really inspired me artistically and gave my photography career direction. I would not be making, showing and selling my unique work were it not for the Haliburton School of The Arts and its faculty. The staff have been wonderful advocates for myself as an artist, even after my graduation from the program."

Why Choose Fleming

This program is delivered at Fleming College's Haliburton Campus, located in central Ontario's spectacular Haliburton Highlands region and home to the Haliburton School of The Arts, renowned for outstanding arts programming. Designed for visual artists, the contemporary architecture maximizes natural light in the studios, classrooms and common areas. It's the perfect environment to flourish as an artist.

Fleming students have unique and flexible options for earning their diploma in the visual arts. Once students have completed their certificate, they can continue their education by enrolling in two more semesters of study to complete their Visual and Creative Arts diploma. Students can continue their arts education through transfer agreements with Emily Carr University of Art and Design and OCAD University (Ontario College of Art and Design).

The certificate programs are delivered in an intensive format in which two semesters of credits can be completed in only 15 weeks. Each certificate course comprises 32.5 hours of in-class instruction with an additional 15 hours of technician - guided, independent studio time. Faculty members are not only professional artists and designers, but also dedicated teachers who are intent upon the development of your technical skills, creative thinking, and artistic integrity. The 40-year history of the Haliburton School of The Arts is proof of the passion and focus of its faculty, administration, and support staff, whose collaboration provides an environment rich in potential for studies in the arts.
