

Visual Arts Fundamentals - Drawing and Painting

Program Location:	Haliburton
Program Code:	VAF
Co-ordinator:	Jennifer Bain
Credential:	Ontario College Certificate
Start Date:	September 04, 2012
Tuition Fees:	$3,872.15 program duration. Tuition and fees subject to change.

The Visual and Creative Arts Fundamentals (Drawing and Painting) program is designed to provide the basic to intermediate-level student with the opportunity to fully explore the range of possibilities of expression in drawing and painting on the two-dimensional surface.

Program Highlights

The program is a thoughtful blend of theory and practicum, with many hands-on, practical exercises to perfect technique and skills while expanding personal themes. Art History, Colour Theory and Design courses will provide a solid foundation of skills to expand your practice as you experiment with various mediums and approaches. Access to quality studio time will provide you the opportunity to complete a solid foundation portfolio.

Focus is given to the development of content for a portfolio of work suitable for application to exhibitions, a variety of venues, or for further studies in fine arts.

Success Stories

"From my newly completed studio in a beautiful maple forest in northwestern New Brunswick I send my appreciation to Fleming College and the staff. I am focused, committed and excited about what lies ahead on my artistic journey. There truly are endless possibilities."

Vicky Lentz

Why Choose Fleming

This program is delivered at Fleming College's Haliburton Campus, located in central Ontario's spectacular Haliburton Highlands region and home to the Haliburton School of The Arts, renowned for outstanding arts programming. Designed for visual artists, the contemporary architecture maximizes natural light in the studios, classrooms and common areas. It's the perfect environment to flourish as an artist.

Fleming students have unique and flexible options for earning their diploma in the visual arts. Once students have completed their certificate, they can continue their education by enrolling in two more semesters of study to complete their Visual and Creative Arts diploma. Students can continue their arts education through transfer agreements with Sheridan College, Emily Carr University of Art and Design and OCAD University. (Ontario College of Art and Design).

The certificate programs are delivered in an intensive format in which two semesters of credits can be completed in only 15 weeks. Each certificate course comprises 32.5 hours of in-class instruction with an additional 15 hours of technician - guided, independent studio time. Faculty members are not only professional artists and designers, but also dedicated teachers who are intent upon the development of your technical skills, creative thinking, and artistic integrity. The 40-year history of the Haliburton School of The Arts is proof of the passion and focus of its faculty, administration, and support staff, whose collaboration provides an environment rich in potential for studies in the arts.
