

Outdoor Adventure Skills Program

Build your career brand in the Outdoor Adventure Skills program at Fleming College. This program is designed for those who love the outdoors, and want to develop their skills, to train and certify prospective adventure tourism employees, and provide specialization for tourism or recreation students.

Graduates have worked with both traditional and non-traditional adventure tourism outlets and in partnership with travel operators and other segments of the tourism industry. Employment with recreational facilities, government agencies, parks, marine facilities, resorts, camps, outdoor education centres or specialty outdoor equipment stores.
