HALIBURTON SCHOOL OF ART + DESIGN
FACULTY ART AUCTION PART-TIME BURSARIES
*Student Application Form

Who provides these bursary funds?

Haliburton School of Art + Design's current and former faculty members donate works of art to the annual Faculty Art Auction held each summer. The funds raised provide bursaries to students attending full and part-time art courses and programs at the Haliburton Campus.

Who is eligible for these Bursaries?

Students may be awarded a maximum of three HSAD bursaries within a five-year period of time. One-day and weekend workshops are not eligible for bursaries.

Bursaries will be considered for applicants who:

- Are enrolled in and attend a HSAD part-time art course (program) at the Haliburton Campus.
- Demonstrate financial need through Statement of Need and Budget. For each of the items highlighted in grey, you may be required to provide a current receipt or bill that validates your current financial circumstances and the reason for your application. For each of the items highlighted in blue you must provide proof with your application.
- Submit a Letter of Intent that shows how the learning will provide personal and artistic growth.
- Identify previous awards and accomplishments

What is the value of each Bursary?

Students in a one-week adult course may be awarded up to up to $450.00

Students in Kids', Youth & Teen courses may be awarded up to $250.00 (Parent must be the applicant)

How are the Bursaries awarded?

Successful recipients will receive their bursary by cheque or it will be applied directly to their course fees on account.
